6. FEE DEFICIENCY

NOTE. If there is a fee deficiency and there is no authorization to charge an account, additional fees are necessary to cover the additional time consumed in making up the original deficiency. If the maximum, six-month period has expired before the deficiency is noted and corrected, the application is held abandoned. In those instances where authorization to charge is included, processing delays are encountered in returning the papers to the PTO Finance Branch in order to apply those charges prior to action on the appeal. Authorization to charge the deposit account for any fee deficiency should be checked. See the Notice of April 7, 1995, 1065 O.G. 31-33.
